

Bedtime Stories Orlando Gough

1 An ogre A handsome prince A beautiful princess A beanstalk A spinning wheel A deep sleep A kiss

2 A frog who knows the future A dwarf with seven league boots A wolf dressed as a woman A bird that can speak

3 A tower without a staircase A boy without a head A high wall A tiny door An ice queen A bed

4 A mirror A rose tree A mother's grave A mouse A mermaid An island A snowflake A vow

5 A girl who has no hands and A shoe that fits a foot A man who tears himself in two A girl who is a goose

6 A trickle of blood A trail of crumbs A watch without a dial A man and a woman who long for a child

7 A deep sleep A hundred years A frog who is a king A white cat A cunning fox A lock of hair A ring

Morning Canticle Words by George Szirtes, Music by Jonathan Baker

On the grass on the streets on the walls on the clocks on the living on the dead

All rising and risen on first speaking

All rising and risen on first seeing

All rising and risen on first walking

All rising and risen in our being

First light

In the forehead, in the eyelid, in the mouth in the throat

All light